

RMHS Senior Timeline Class of 2022

All year	August	September	October	November
Check your school and personal email regularly Get text reminders about career and college opportunities: Text @rmh22ccc to the number 81010 Visit college campuses every chance you get! Call ahead for the campus tour schedule. Attend the RMHS College Representative visits. They are a great way to get your questions answered. Check the TV across from the College &amp; Career Center for a complete schedule (it updates frequently!). Use a professional (not PSD) email for your college and scholarship applications. You will lose access to the PSD account in June. Use your full, legal name for all college-related documents. Search for scholarships. There's lots of free money you can get your hands on if you are open minded and put in the effort!	Make sure you are scheduled to fulfill your top colleges' entrance requirements (courses, GPA, test scores, etc.). Visit (or plan to visit) colleges that interest you. Create/finalize your list of colleges to apply to. Organize materials into separate files by college. Create a college calendar of all admissions, scholarship, and financial aid deadlines. Carefully consider Early Decision or Early Action options. Deadlines start in September! If you plan to compete in Division I or Division II college sports, register with the NCAA Eligibility Center. ONLY if needed, register for the fall SAT or ACT tests (many colleges are waving SAT/ACT requirements for admission for the Class of 2022, but may require testing for scholarships!). Find out the required tests for your college choices—Students sometimes must take the ACT with writing, or need to retake the SAT or ACT. Find out the cut-off ACT/SAT scores for any automatic scholarships at your colleges (if applicable). Sometimes, just one point can make a difference of thousands of dollars. Get a SAT or ACT fee waiver from your counselor or the College and Career Center if you qualify for free/reduced lunch. This will save you ~$50/test.	Get started on your applications right away if you plan to apply through an early decision or early action program. Deadlines for early applications tend to fall in October or November. Update your resume with your senior year activities. Your resume will help you complete your applications, and are often needed for teachers/counselors to write letters of recommendation. Take SAT/ACT tests, if needed. Make sure your scores are sent to each of your colleges as well as RMHS so we can put the scores on your transcript. September 15. Priority 1 deadline for Colorado School of Mines! September 29-30 —Out-of-State College Fairs online. Look for upcoming details about breakout information sessions and the ~300 colleges attending! If you have not yet talked with college representatives, this is a good place to start: connect online to get your basic questions answered or to expand your college list. College Application Workshops Get help with your applications. Look for workshops for the UCalifornia system and Common App. Essay Workshops Look for workshops focusing on getting started and workshops on getting help with editing. College Rep Visits in the CCC or virtual Many colleges normally visit RMHS during Sept/Oct. The representative who will join us is usually the person who makes the admission decision about YOU. Get information and get connected!	Apply to your top colleges—we recommend applying to 2-5 colleges (sometimes more). Meet/beat all deadlines! Most college applications will be completed online through the college's portal or the Common App. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Keep track of all your usernames and passwords in a way that is easy to access from school (send info to your school email). Submit applications as early as possible for colleges with rolling deadlines.</li> <li>If you are applying under an early decision or early action program, be sure to get all forms in as soon as possible.</li> </ul> Ask your teachers, (or counselors, coaches or employers) for letters of recommendation. Give them plenty of time to meet your deadlines (generally 2-3 weeks). Follow up to ensure that letters of recommendation are sent on time to meet your deadlines. Need financial aid? File your FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) as soon after October 1st as possible! Priority deadlines vary by college, but at most colleges, the sooner you file, the better chances you have at "discretionary money." You will need tax information from 2020. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Find out if your college requires the CSS Profile (generally at private institutions including University of Denver, Colorado College, USC, Stanford, etc.) and prepare any financial paperwork needed. CSS Profile applications can be filed starting Oct 1st.</li> </ul> College Application Workshop, Essay Workshops, and College Visits Continue (see September for details). October 19-21—Colorado Free Application Days most in state, public colleges will offer free applications to Colorado student who submit their application on this day. October 11 — In-State and More College Fair at Fossil Ridge HS. If you have not yet talked with college representatives, this is a good place to start. Look for more details in September. October 14—ASVAB Test@RMHS 12:15 PM Take advantage of the free, no-risk ASVAB test at Rocky. This is used by all military branches for career placement. If you are considering enlisting, or applying for ROTC or a military, this is strongly encouraged. Register at https://tinyurl.com/RMHS-ASVAB21	If you have not yet completed your college applications, now is the time Access your colleges' online portals as soon as possible (usually available once you apply)—these have information about your application process, scholarships, housing, financial aid and more. Get into the habit of logging into each college's portal as well as checking your school email. Look for and apply to your college's institutional scholarships as soon as possible. Deadlines often begin in November and December. Work hard at completing your scholarship essays. Proofread them rigorously for mistakes. Follow up with your teachers to ensure that letters of recommendation are sent on time. Know YOUR Deadlines: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Future CU Buffs: Early Action Nov. 15.</li> <li>Future CSU Rams: Early Action Deadline Dec. 1</li> </ul>

RMHS Senior Timeline Class of 2022

December	January	February	March	April	May
Scholarships &amp; Financial Aid should be your primary focus now. If you have not yet applied to your colleges, work on that as well. Look for the PSD (Local) Scholarship Packet just before winter break in the College &amp; Career Center. This packet includes ~30 scholarships for Northern Colorado, PSD, or RMHS students only. Although some require attendance at a local college, most can be used anywhere! Many colleges now have scholarship applications available to students who have applied for admissions (even if you haven't heard if you are admitted yet). Often the deadlines to complete the scholarships applications fall mid-January through March, so don't miss out! Search for local, state, and national scholarships through at least one national scholarship website like fastweb.com, scholarships.com or princetonreview.com. Check to see if your college(s) use raise.me for scholarships. (ONLY use FREE scholarship sites)	Contact your colleges to confirm that all application materials have been received if appropriate. Some colleges need your first-semester grades (or mid-year grade report) as part of your application. See Leah Kapral to have your grades sent to colleges that require them (including ALL CommonApp colleges). Know YOUR Deadlines! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Future CSU Rams: Your regular admission application deadline is February 1.</li> <li>• Future UNC Bears: Apply for admission by Feb. 1 to receive max. consideration for scholarships. Submit the UNC Universal Scholarship Application before March 1.</li> <li>• Future Fort Lewis Skyhawks: For automatic scholarships, apply for admission by January 15th.</li> <li>• Future CU Buffs: Your final admission deadline is typically January 15th.</li> </ul> January TBD, PSD (Local) Scholarship Packet Due	Don't get senioritis! Colleges want to see strong second half grades. Know YOUR Deadlines! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Future Buffalos: Typically CU scholarship applications are due around March 1st, but some are earlier. If you apply for scholarships that have a financial need requirement, your FAFSA results must also be on file earlier.</li> <li>• Future Wolves: FRCC often has their scholarship packet available at this time and due in March.</li> </ul>	Some financial aid decisions arrive this month. Read everything you receive carefully (including mail, email, and portal announcements), as some of it may require action on your part. Keep any offers of scholarships, even if you do not intend to use them. We will collect that information for the graduation program and for the Scholarship Breakfast.	Most admissions decisions and financial aid award letters have arrived by this month (or information is posted to your online account through each college's portal. Read everything you receive carefully, as some of it may require action on your part. Make a final decision and mail the enrollment form and deposit check to the school you select before May 1 (the enrollment deadline for most schools). Notify each of the schools to which you were accepted that you will not be attending in writing so that your spot can be freed up for another student. On the waiting list? Contact the admissions office and let them know of your continued interest in the college and update them on your spring semester grades and activities If you are attending a college in Colorado, make sure you have registered for the COF (College Opportunity Fund) and have released the funds to your (future) school. April (TBD)—Senior/Parent REQUIRED MEETING Required meeting for all students who want to walk at graduation. April TBD—Scholarship information due to be included in the Graduation program. See your email for details in early April and at the early April Senior/Parent meeting.	AP Exams are administered. Make sure your AP score report is sent to your college. Study hard for final exams. Most admissions offers are contingent on your final grades. Thank your counselor, teachers, coaches, and anyone else who wrote you recommendations or otherwise helped with your college applications. Be sure your final transcript gets sent to your college choice—simply complete your senior surveys fully and accurately before check out. If you have earned credit through CSU, CU, or FRCC, send that college transcript to the college you will be attending. See Ms. Fassnacht for instructions on how to order those college transcripts. If you plan on competing in Division I or Division II college sports, check with Leah to ensure that your final transcript is sent to the NCAA Initial Eligibility Clearinghouse. Finalize your housing plans. Sign up for first-year orientation. May 1—Commitment/Deposit Deadline (for most 4-year colleges) Most four-year colleges expect students to commit to attend in the fall. Colleges usually require a deposit for classes and a deposit for housing (when applicable). Celebrate with your classmates in the CCC the Friday before! May TBD—Scholarship information due to be included in the Scholarship Breakfast Submit through an online survey. See your email in April for details. May 18—Scholarship Breakfast. This free event recognizes students in the Class of 2022 who are offered scholarships. You can submit information about any scholarship you have been offered—find details in your email in April. May 19—Convocation and Senior Checkout. May 20/21—Graduation!
