Thank You to our Volunteers at the 2020 Career Xpo: What's Your Endgame!

Keynote: Mitch Bell, RMHS alumnus & Marvel Studios producer

One of the nineteen breakout sessions

Over eighty booths represented career areas and education options

The Rocky Mountain High School Career Xpo committee would like to thank all our volunteers for making the 10th Career Xpo a huge success!

Nearly 200 community members donated their time and knowledge for the afternoon to help our juniors explore a wide variety of careers, career pathways, and post-secondary education options.

Throughout the afternoon, Rocky juniors traveled through three stations: keynote speaker-Mitch Bell, RMHS alumnus and Marvel Studios producer, a breakout session in a career field of the student's choice, and the career and college booths in the gyms.

Thank you all for helping create this unique and valuable career exploration opportunity for our students! It was a great day for our students to explore and plan for their Endgames! We couldn't do it without your help & support!

Students should also have sheet music for their chosen song – an accompanist will be present at auditions. Please note that this is for a spot in the 2021 class – parts auditions will be at the end of this school year.

Testing Info

Why are these exams important?

9th graders – This will be the first year freshmen will be taking the PSAT 9 exam

- This exam leads right into the assessment they will take as sophomores which is the PSAT 10 as well as the exam they will take as juniors, which is the SAT.
- They are all very similar exams in both structure and questioning.
- It will give a reflection of the great work the students and teachers have put in at the freshmen level this year.
- Students will be able to get specific guided practice on areas of need for the PSAT 10 utilizing Kahn Academy after they get back the results from this exam. See Collegeboard.org for more information about how to take advantage of this excellent free resource.
- It will give the students an experience of what taking a state test will be like which is something we cannot duplicate in the normal day to day classroom. You do not want the first time students experience this testing environment to be when they take their college entrance exam as a junior.

10th graders – They will be taking the PSAT 10. This will be the third year sophomores have taken this exam.

- This exam leads right into the assessment they will take as juniors, which is the SAT.
- They are very similar exams in both structure and questioning.
- It will reflect the great work the student and teachers have put in at the sophomore level this year.
- Students will be able to get specific guided practice on areas of need for the SAT utilizing Kahn Academy after they get back the results from this exam. See Collegeboard.org for more information about how to take advantage of this excellent free resource.
- It will give the students an experience of what taking a state test will be like which is something we cannot duplicate in the normal day to day classroom. You do not want the first time students experience this testing environment to be when they take their college entrance exam as a junior.

11th graders – They will be taking the SAT. This will be the second year juniors have taken the SAT.

- It will reflect the great work the student and teachers have put in at the junior level this year.
- This exam will be accepted by most colleges/universities as part of a student's college application.
- Allows students the ability to access scholarships depending on score and the college/university they plan to attend.

11th graders will also be taking the CMAS Science exam

- It will reflect the great work the student and teachers in our science department have put in over the last 3 years.
- It will give the students an experience of taking a high stakes computer based test which is something we cannot duplicate in the normal day to day classroom. Many placement tests for colleges and universities are computer based and having this experience will help them prepare for that situation.

For all students and parents, we want you to understand that these exams reflect both the student's individual learning and the learning of the school as a whole. We would love for that to be a true reflection of both. In order to make that happen we need students to be in attendance and to take these days seriously. We realize that testing is not the only way for Rocky to show off what an incredible school we are, but it is another opportunity to do so. We appreciate your support and if you have any questions regarding testing please contact Tim Bruell at tbruell@psdschools.org or 970-488-7007.

Remember these assessments are REQUIRED

Students are expected to be in attendance on their scheduled testing days. If your student is not going to be here please visit this link: <https://www.psdschools.org/assessment-and-school-support/district-and-state-assessments/state-assessment-opt-out>

Seniors, as well as those that opt out should only be at school in the afternoon on both days.
